

Next Generation, Cloud-Based Law Practice Software That Makes Everyone's Job Easier

At ZenCase, our roots are in the practice of law, and together with our partner, Circle Management Group, we are focused on solving the problems that challenge law firms.

For Managing Partners

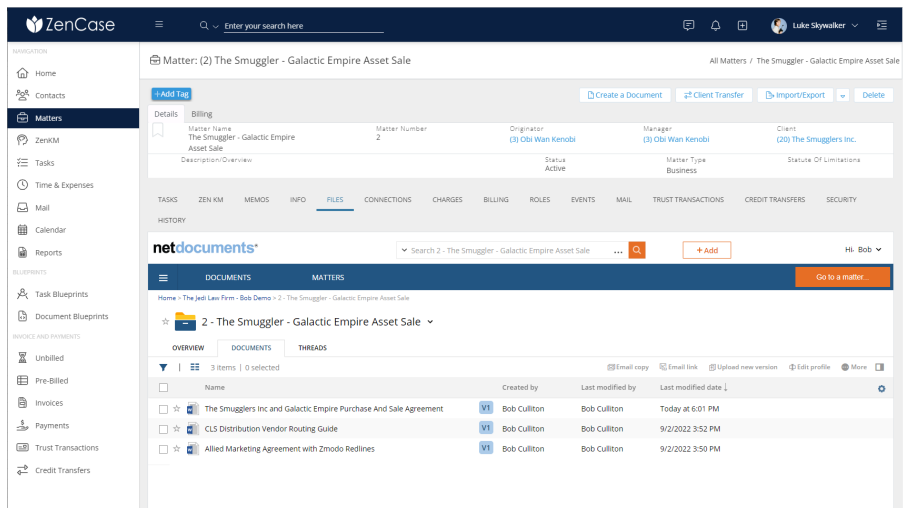

You need easy access to information to guide the firm, wanting to increase productivity and profitability, balance resources, create a proactive culture or retain firm knowledge as you manage staff turnover. ZenCase has a better way through its customizable dashboards, report library and Knowledge Management functions.

For Legal Administrators

We know you do the real work and you'd like to reduce the time it takes to manage Time, Billing and Collections. You'd like easier Accounting and report access. You'd also like to reduce the time involved in Trust Accounting. ZenCase has a better way.

For Attorneys

You are dealing with information overload. You'd like to increase your billable hours and be more productive so you can take on additional clients. ZenCase makes it easy to capture all of your billable time though our new Automated Time Manager™ technology. We make matter management easier and give you the tools to quickly assign tasks and track deadlines. Utilize prior work with our document automation capabilities and leverage firm knowledge with ZenKM... All with just a few clicks. ZenCase has a better way.
